QUINCY

"City of Presidents"

LOCATION—Quincy lies on Quincy Bay, which is off the larger Massachusetts Bay, forming the excellent harbor that has had so much to do with the shipping importance of New England. The city is strategically situated for residence and business, only eight miles from the heart of Boston, with which it is closely connected by business and social ties. Distances from Quincy are, New Bedford 47 miles, Providence 43, Worcester 43, Lowell 33, Concord, N. H., 96, Portland 118, Bangor 268, Springfield 105, Albany 186, Schenectady 205, Hartford 115, New York 223, Greenfield 105, Elmira 391, Atlantic City 359, Buffalo 506, Philadelphia 318, Rochester 409, Burlington 223, White Mts. 187, Washington 454. 42 ft. above sea level.

TOPOGRAPHY—Quincy has a beautiful and interesting topography. The altitude varies from sea level to 480 feet in sloping terrain. The average altitude in the business and residential section is 25 feet. The Blue Hills Reservation is partly in Quincy and provides a delightful variation from the low land of the sea shore. It is probable that the topography of Quincy surpasses in beauty and variety that of any other city in Massachusetts, combining sea, headlands, shore and hills. The residential districts extend into the highlands from which view of the lower parts of the city and the bay may be had. Much of Quincy's charm for residences is its highland home sections. From the Blue Hills it is possible to see much of Boston and the Metropolitan area. Quincy has the attractiveness of the "South Shore" which leads to Cape Cod. Area 16.77 square miles, 10,736 acres of land and 7,262 acres of water.

Quincy has many "firsts" and "onlys". It is the only city to have supplied two presidents — John Adams, the second president of the United States, and John Quincy Adams, the sixth president. Abigail Adams, the only woman in our history to have had the distinction of being the wife of one president and the mother of another, was the first "First Lady" to grace the White House.

Birthplace of John Adams

Birthplace of John Quincy Adams

The Adams Birthplaces, delightful in their simplicity and severity, are architecturally illustrative of the Old New England "salt box." Originally surrounded by orchards and farm land, the houses were close to the hearts of those who built them and raised their families in them. In a letter from Europe, Abigail Adams wrote: "I long to return to my native land. My little cottage, encompassed with my friends, has more charms for me than the drawing-room of St. James."

A cairn erected at the top of the hill near the birthplaces symbolizes for Quincy the Battle of Bunker Hill and what it meant for American democracy. It was from this vantage point that Abigail Adams and her young son John Quincy watched the smoke rise from burning Charlestown and listened to the roar of cannon.

Visitors learn with interest that the birthplace of John Quincy Adams is also the legal birthplace of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. As depicted in a painting which hangs in the State House, it was in the little room with the big fireplace, formerly the kitchen, that the Constitution of Massachusetts was drafted — by John Adams, his cousin Samuel Adams, and James Bowdoin.

And by the way, the knocker on the front door through which you entered the John Quincy Adams house was made by Paul Revere.

The Adams National Historic Site

The Adams National Historic Site, formerly known as the Adams Mansion, offers a gracious welcome to Historic Quincy. The rambling house, constructed by successive generations to meet family needs, sits restfully behind the red brick wall, surrounded by greenness of lawn and old elms. Visitors enjoy the beauty of the formal garden and take delight in the fact that a Yorkist rose still flowering was planted there by Abigail. They also learn with special interest that they are visiting what was at one time the summer White House.

To many, the Adams National Historic Site more than any other historic spot brings to life the dynamic figures of the American Revolution and the Early Republic.

It was from the big chair in the corner of the living room that John Adams, in anticipation of the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, sent the vibrant message, "Independence Forever." It was in the same big chair a few days later that he died — significantly on the fourth of July and within a few hours of the passing of Thomas Jefferson. That a strong friendship existed between Adams and Jefferson is well evidenced by the extensive correspondence and the exchange of portraits. The Jefferson portrait is still a cherished possession of the Adams Family.

A colorful scene to reconstruct in imagination while visiting the Adams National Historic Site is the arrival in Quincy of the two hundred cadets who had marched from West Point to visit Harvard College and the site of the Battle of Bunker Hill, and to pay respect to "the old President." According to a diary account of an observer, the cadets stacked their arms and marched into the courtyard where they were greeted by "the venerated statesman," with exceptional vigor and with his "accustomed kindness." After a brief rest on the lawn, the cadets started back — to West Point.

Both John Adams and John Quincy Adams and their wives are buried in granite tombs beneath the First Parish Church in the heart of Quincy Square. The crypt is open to visitors. The old church of rugged Quincy granite with goldleaf dome is one of the most familiar landmarks in Quincy.

Probably the most romantic of the "old houses," the Dorothy Quincy Homestead withdraws from busy Hancock Street — and the tempo of the brook as it travels through the shady grounds is that of two centuries ago. It was here that Dorothy Quincy grew up and it was here that her marriage to John Hancock was to have taken place. Wallpaper with nuptial design imported for the occasion may still be seen in the formal parlor.

First Parish Church

The Dorothy Quincy Homestead

During the anxious days of the Revolutionary period patriots were harbored in the Dorothy Quincy Homestead and a secret chamber is the delight of visitors.

It was from the old homestead that John Hancock, musket in hand and with a price on his head, fled Quincy to join the Minute Men, leaving behind, diamond-etched on the window pane, a secret message which time has shared with many thousands of visitors: "You I love and you alone." It was from here that Dorothy Quincy left with her aunt by coach to join John Hancock in Connecticut where they were married at the home of a friend.

The old kitchen with low beams and huge fireplace is authentically reminiscent of Colonial days and Old New England. For many visitors, this room has a special appeal.

The Colonel Josiah Quincy Homestead

The Colonel Josiah Quincy Homestead, Quincy's newest "old house," was recently taken over by the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities.

It was from this house that the maneuvers of the British fleet were watched and reported to General Washington at Cambridge, and the withdrawal of General Gage heralded. And through the years, persons with names well known to American history were guests at this Colonial home.

It is recorded that upon one occasion, of a Sunday afternoon, Lafayette and his son, who had been dinner guests at the Adams Mansion, were driven in the Adams coach to the Quincy Homestead, the Marquis carrying with him for Mrs. Quincy a bouquet of roses gathered from the Adams garden. The visitors were received with due graciousness by Colonel Josiah Quincy, then President of Harvard College, and by Mrs. Quincy and their five attractive daughters. Interestingly, it was during this stay in our country that Lafayette assisted at the laying of the cornerstone of the Bunker Hill monument.

The Josiah Quincy Homestead, which is now open to visitors, is furnished with antique pieces of the period, and offers fine examples of hand-hewn timbering and pine paneling.

It was, of course, from the Quincy Family that Quincy got its name.

Site of the Birthplace of John Hancock

Logical indeed is the bust of John Hancock at the junction of Adams and Hancock Streets, its pedestal resting on the grounds of Adams Academy, a boys' school founded by John Adams and constructed, unfortunately, over what was originally the cellar of the birthplace of John Hancock.

As attention-getting as the bust itself is the bold replica of the bold and famous signature. The Quincy memorial to the Quincy patriot and first signer of the Declaration of Independence symbolizes for America both its heritage and its obligation.

John Hancock's father, the Reverend John Hancock, fourth minister of the First Parish Church, is buried in Hancock Cemetery.

This old burial ground next to City Hall is itself an historic landmark. After having been used for 175 years as a burial ground and open pasture, it was purchased by public-spirited citizens and deeded to the Town of Quincy with the stipulation "that the inhabitants of the town shall never hereafter allow the said burial ground to be used as a pasture, or any horse or cattle of any description to run therein."

Although we cannot show you John Hancock's birthplace, we can show you his carriage — and a remarkable one it is — one of the "five most unique" in the country, with a sword compartment in the rear and with upholstery so well preserved you can still see the design. Be sure not to miss John Hancock's carriage when you visit the Dorothy Quincy Homestead.

Site of John Hancock's Birthplace

Adams Academy Building

Significantly, the old Adams Academy building, which represents one of the many Adams Family gifts to the city and which marks the site of the birthplace of John Hancock, now serves as headquarters for three Selective Service Boards, the Quincy Council Boy Scouts of America, and the Quincy United Fund and Community Council.

The Myles Standish Cairn

Lobsters for breakfast — not a bad welcome to Quincy! Captain Myles Standish, the first white visitor to our shores, was apparently well satisfied with his breakfast on the beach and forthwith laid claim to the peninsula on which he had landed by naming it Squantum, in deference to his faithful Indian guide, Squanto. It was for him and for Squanto and for the spirit of adventuresomeness that a cairn has been placed on the Squantum peninsula which comprises the northeast segment of Quincy and which not unlike a big lobster claw reaches out into Quincy Bay toward Houghs Neck.

But Squantum was here long before Squanto. According to geologists, the rock formation on which the Myles Standish Cairn now stands is over 250 million years old.

Moswetuset Hummock

Another spot of historical interest in the vicinity of Squantum is Moswetuset Hummock which was the seat of Sachem Chickatabot of the Massachusetts tribe of Indians. It was from Moswetuset, it is believed, that the name of Massachusetts was derived. And here again Quincy has the distinction of being interestingly involved in the early story of the Commonwealth.

Maypole Park

There is only a marker there now, but it takes little imagination to bring back for a fleeting moment the whirling and famous scene of Thomas Morton and the Indians — the maypole with the spreading antlers and the colorful revelry which brought from Plymouth Colony such solemn rebuke.

Maypole Park in Merrymount is also the site of the great cedar which, stark from prevailing winds off the sea, still stands in the middle of the official seal of the City of Quincy.

The First Railroad

They said it was folly, but Gridley Bryant, Quincy's early industrial engineer, had convictions the outcome of which was another "first" for Quincy — the first commercial railroad to be built in this country. The railroad, consisting of a horse-drawn tram, took granite blocks from the heart of the rugged quarry area, dragging them to barges in the Neponset River en route to Bunker Hill.

Quincy granite might not last, some said, and feared lest the supply be exhausted before the completion of the Bunker Hill monument. But the quarrying of Quincy granite became for one hundred years Quincy's principal industry.

We invite you to visit Quincy's first railroad where you will see the original tracks with stone ties, and we invite you to become familiar with the distinctive appearance of Quincy granite so that you may enjoy recognizing it when you find it elsewhere.

The entrance to the South Shore National Bank Building in Quincy Square provides an outstanding example of the decorative use of the polished stone.

The John Winthrop Jr. Blast Furnace

The John Winthrop Jr. Blast Furnace, the first operating blast furnace in America, was producing commercial iron in 1644. The recently excavated furnace and casting pits highlight Quincy as the birthplace of the iron and steel industry and provide for Quincy visitors another historic site of unique interest.

Quincy is a cosmopolitan community of approximately 87,000. It is adjacent to Boston on the South Shore and comprises within itself a business and industrial center with many cultural and educational advantages. Quincy offers a warm welcome not only to visitors but to those who seek a forward-looking community in which to locate and to live.

Further information relative to Quincy may be obtained through the Quincy-South Shore Chamber of Commerce.

The Building

.....has been used as a home, a dormitory, an inn, a rooming house and now, an office.

During the years that it was the property of the Millers and the Bigelows, it was exclusively a home. When the Everetts were in residence here, many of the students from the Adams Academy were quartered in the house. In the period between 1822 and 1912, an addition was made to the structure, increasing the rooms from the original 13 to the 23 which it now has.

When Henry M. Faxon purchased the "land and buildings thereon" he acquired a 23-room mansion. His idea, at that time, was to develop a community around the Inn, and he commissioned A. H. Wright, a Boston architect to design seven cottages which would be constructed on the land surrounding the Inn. The cottages were built with no kitchen facilities, the understanding being that the tenants would take their meals in the main house. (The houses at 88, 94, 100, 106, and 112 Elm Street and at 44 Bigelow Street and 30-32 Miller Stile Road are the "Cottages.") This practice ceased with the advent of the second world war. The cottages were sold (save two) and the beautiful old mansion became a rooming house, a condition that prevailed at the time the Chamber of Commerce began to look for new and permanent quarters.

The New Building Committee of the Chamber recommended the purchase of the Inn not only because it offered sufficient space to accommodate the Chamber staff and that of the Quincy-South Shore Credit Association but also, and almost more importantly, because thereby the Chamber would be preserving a beautiful and historic building.

The restoration and remodelling began in January of this year and has continued right up to the present. The Chamber offices have retained the Colonial charm and dignity while the Credit Association quarters are modern and functional.

FINANCIAL—There are 8 financial institutions with resources of $294,517,881.28, including 3 commercial, 1 savings, 3 cooperative, 1 federal savings and loan, commodiously housed and very progressive. Postal receipts 1960, approximately $1,000,000. City valuation of property is $179,725,650.00 with tax rate of $75.60 per $1,000. Bonded debt is $11,808,000.

TRANSPORTATION—Quincy is served by the New Haven Railroad (Old Colony Division) connecting at Boston with the Boston & Albany Division of the New York Central lines, and all divisions of the Boston & Maine system. Local bus lines serve all parts of the city and connect with adjacent cities and towns. Motor truck service is extensive. Highways 3, 135, 3A, 37, 28, 128 lead to the city and are first class construction. A new southeast expressway connects Quincy, South Shore and Boston. Quincy has a harbor for deep draft shipping, and at the Quincy yard of the Bethlehem Steel Company has one of the large dry docks of the country. Quincy occupies an important position from a water transportation standpoint. Town River has a channel which offers 24 feet of water low tide and about 33 feet high tide, accommodating coastwise shipping. Several boat building companies on the river are benefited by this deep channel water.

MERCANTILE—Quincy is a thriving shopping center with modern stores and 1,163 metered parking areas directly off the main business sections. In 1950 annual retail sales exceeded $114,721,000. Population in the trading area is 450,000. Serving this area are 1,200 retail establishments and 15 wholesale companies.

There are over 600 professional offices. Supplementing the year-round population is an annual summer influx of seasonal residents. The combination of suburban living with unusual recreational advantages and excellent opportunities for education and employment are responsible for Quincy being described with considerable accuracy as the fastest growing city in Massachusetts.

EDUCATIONAL—The public school system is in the first rank among the cities of the nation. There are 32 schools including 3 senior high, 5 junior high, 23 elementary, 1 trade. There are 15,061 pupils and 600 teachers. There are also 4 parochial schools with 2,431 pupils and 43 teachers. Value of public school property is more than $10,000,000, and parochial school property $1,000,000. There is private school instructing in various subjects. The Eastern Nazarene College is located here. The public library has an extensive service with main building and 7 branches plus hospital and nursing home service totaling over 191,455 volumes and has an annual circulation of more than 650,000 books loaned to 28,000 borrowers. The Free Directory Library is maintained by The Price & Lee Co. at the Chamber of Commerce and contains directories of other cities and towns in Northeastern United States.

INDUSTRIAL—There are 135 manufacturing establishments employing 15,500 and paying wages of $80,000,000 annually making varied products valued at over 100 millions. Chief activities are in ship building, granite cutting, finishing and machinery. Principal products are ships, tubes, machinery parts, granite, rivets and studs, gears, electronics, electronic and television equipment, rubber goods, amplifying and telephone equipment, marine engines, portable buildings, paints, tools, chemicals, yachts, boilers, steel and brass foundry products, floor machines, conveyors, cord and thread, leather products, underwear, dresses, cymbals, small boats, automobile bodies, automobile tops, beverages, concrete blocks, furniture, ice cream, insect screens, musical instruments, scales, scientific instruments, soap, starch, signs, tanks, ventilators, window shades, packaging machinery etc. Quincy is a good city in which to locate a manufacturing business. Relations between employer and employees are cordial and strikes are rare. A supply of highly skilled workmen is one of Quincy's greatest assets. A strong Chamber of Commerce encourages and assists new industries and has a most active industrial development committee.

POPULATION—Quincy is reputed to be the fastest growing city in Massachusetts. It has grown from 47,876 in 1920 to 87,409 in 1960. Predominating nationalities are English, Canadian, Scottish, Italian and Finnish extraction. Number of homes and apartments is approximately 24,000.

RELIGIOUS AND BENEVOLENT—There are 48 churches representing 17 denominations with a total membership of over 50,000. These churches are well placed throughout the city. Fraternal and club life is extensive with more than 400 organizations represented, some well housed in their own buildings.

RECREATIONAL—For amusement and recreational facilities Quincy can hardly be surpassed. There are 44 parks with area of 173.83 acres and playgrounds 130.42 or total 305.25 acres, and a value of over $600,000. These combined with the extensive Blue Hills Reservation, part of which lies in Quincy, give the city an unusual amount of play space. Quincy has two exceptionally attractive golf courses and club house facilities. Not the least of Quincy's recreational facilities are its shore line, beaches, also yachts and shore clubs of which there are 5. Boating and bathing activities are popular. Quincy is so located that it lends itself to recreation for residents and those residing in nearby cities and towns. Quincy stands high in its public school athletic activities and competing sports with other city schools. There are 5 amusement theatres and several school and private auditoriums. Bridle paths in the Blue Hills Reservation furnish excellent opportunities for the riding enthusiast. There is a municipal stadium seating 6,000.

MISCELLANEOUS STATISTICS—Mayor, Modified Plan A form of government. The Quincy Patriot Ledger publishes daily from Monday to Saturday. There is one radio broadcasting station WJDA. The mean annual temperature averages 49.6 degrees. Annual rainfall 40.14 inches. There are four public and private hospitals and a public health center, first in New England and second in United States. Total street mileage 208.53, with 165.09 miles paved. 183 miles gas mains. 192.53 miles of sewers. 37.07 miles of local bus service. 19,750 water meters, 29,725 light meters, 22,470 gas meters. Waterworks capacity 9,327,000 gallons with daily average pump of 8,981,800 gallons, 227 miles of water mains, daily average consumption per capita 103 gallons. Water department property is valued at over $2,000,000. The fire department has 214 men with 20 pieces of motor equipment with 7 stations, 7,069 fire hydrants. The police department has 157 men and 22 pieces of motor equipment. The Chamber of Commerce has sponsored an impressive Christmas Festival including a parade, a promenade, and after Christmas, a program of Christmas Tree collection and a tree burning ceremony.

I AM

I sit in the castles of business and at the hearthstones of many homes, mighty in my power to serve.

Through me is the power to make people talk with intelligence concerning their communities.

With extended hand I guide the wearied traveler, and to others shorten the distances between destinations.

In me abides the essence of democracy, as side by side is found all nationalities, rich and poor alike.

With uncanny certainty I unite long-lost friends and make glad the missing heirs.

Through me are protected the law-abiding by tracing the criminal to his hiding place.

Through me, in the friendliest way, new trade channels are opened.

I am the key that unlocks the gate to what your community is, for all who would pass its portals.

REMEMBER THE SALVATION ARMY IN YOUR WILL

FOR over ninety-five years The Salvation Army has demonstrated its unique effectiveness in dealing with problems of distress and maladjustment among all types of persons through its highly organized network of spiritual, social service, and character-building activities. Universal endorsement has been given it by governments, churches, welfare agencies and other groups.

The organization, however, is not endowed. Its support comes from the voluntary contributions of the public.

The Salvation Army is legally competent to accept bequests and earnestly seeks such gifts for either general or specific purposes, or for the establishment of suitable memorials.

Any information or advice will be gladly furnished upon application, direct or through legal advisers, to:

The Taxpayers' Advocate invites your support!

✦

THE QUINCY TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION IS CONSTANTLY FIGHTING FOR YOU ON THE STATE AND LOCAL LEVEL

Minority pressure groups who are constantly fighting for a larger share of your tax money have always been organized.

Since 1932, Quincy property taxpayers have been organized, but they need your support. Don't expect 3000 members to do all the work for 24,000 taxpayers.

If you are a property taxpayer in Quincy, you should belong to the Quincy Taxpayers Association.

Minimum dues for business firms	$25 a year
Minimum dues for home-owners	$ 3 a year

This is low cost insurance for good government.

Do your part in the never-ending campaign for "honest and efficient government at the lowest practical cost."

Join the organized taxpayers!

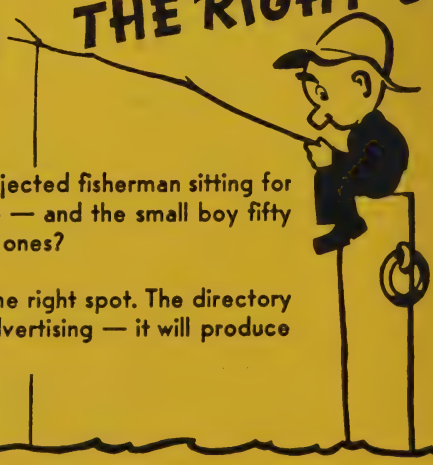
FISHING IN THE RIGHT SPOT?



Have you ever noticed a dejected fisherman sitting for hours, without even a nibble — and the small boy fifty feet away pulling in the big ones?

It's just a case of fishing in the right spot. The directory is the right spot for your advertising — it will produce the results — the big ones.

The Sign Over Your Door

Is a good thing, isn't it? You would not think of doing business without it.

But it is only seen by those who pass your way.

If you could put a sign where everyone could see it would it interest you?

THE CITY DIRECTORY

Is where people look for you when they want to do business. You should make it easy for them to find you, by putting such information as a buyer wants, in the Directory properly indexed under all headings where he might look for you.

INTELLIGENT ADVERTISING

Eye-catching Advertising caters to a chance trade, whose eyes are wandering.

Businesslike Advertising puts its display where it will be seen by those Looking for the message it bears.

IF YOU WANT TO KNOW
The meaning of a word, Where Do You Look? In the Dictionary.

Who sells what you want to buy,
IN THE DIRECTORY.

A directory is On The Job 365 Days in the year, and he who looks therein does so because he WANTS SOMETHING.

CITY DIRECTORY

I AM

I sit in the castles of business and at the hearthstones of many homes, mighty in my power to serve.

Through me is the power to make people talk with intelligence concerning their communities.

With extended hand I guide the wearied traveler, and to others shorten the distances between destinations.

In me abides the essence of democracy, as side by side is found all nationalities, rich and poor alike.

With uncanny certainty I unite long-lost friends and make glad the missing heirs.

Through me are protected the law-abiding by tracing the criminal to his hiding place.

Through me, in the friendliest way, new trade channels are opened.

I am the key that unlocks the gate to what your community is, for all who would pass its portals.

I Am Your City Directory

Common Sense

About City Directory Circulation

THE true value of advertising circulation is circulation consulted.

TO be exact by actual survey in twenty-four average American cities by actual count each city directory averaged three and one-half consultations for each business day.

TO be conservative we will eliminate the sixty Sundays and Holidays when no tests were made.

FOR every thousand directories sold there will be an average of three and one-half daily consultations for each book for three hundred and five days, therefore—

1000 x 3½ x 305=
1,067,500

Consultations or

Circulation Consulted

The Mortality of Advertising

The waste basket is the grave of millions of dollars worth of advertising every year. Keep your advertising out of the waste basket by using mediums that are not thrown away. The City Directory is on the job 365 days in the year and no level headed man will think of the waste basket and the City Directory at the same time.

QUINCY NUMERICAL DIRECTORY

EXPLANATORY NOTES

The streets are arranged alphabetically with their descriptions, each description followed by a numerical arrangement of householders, places of business and street interesections. (Arranged by rotation where no numbers have been assigned.)
The abbreviation r between the street number and the name signifies "rear."
The word "vacant" after a number signifies that the house, office or store at that number was vacant when the canvass was made.
Δ Indicates telephone at this number.
"Right odd" after street description indicates odd numbers on right side of street.
The symbol ◎ preceding a householder's name indicates that information has been secured during the canvass that the house is owned by some member of the family, but as the publishers cannot and do not guarantee the correctness of the information furnished, nor the complete absence of mistakes, no responsibility for errors can be or is assumed, nor can the publishers furnish further information than that shown.

ADVERTISERS WHO KNOW

That which makes any advertiser's approval worth while is the prominence he has attained in his particular line of work.

The advertisers in the Directory are competent judges on the subject of advertising mediums — the fact that they approve of Directory advertising is evidenced by their continued patronage.

High Hurdles. . . .

In business as well as in sports there are High Hurdles to overcome. Your ad in the Directory, where multitudes will see it, will help to overcome many of the business hurdles.
